Dear Reuel,

Congratulations! Your application for admission to The Graduate School at Louisiana State University has been approved for the Spring 2021 semester in Computer Science - MS.

Please note, a provisional admission means that the Graduate School is still missing required official documents. Information regarding the missing and required official documents can be found in your application portal. All of these documents are due within thirty days after the first day of classes of your starting semester or module. If the missing documents are not received within 30 days of the start of classes, then a registration hold will be placed on your account and you will not be able to register for classes for subsequent semesters or modules.

Official transcripts are the most common missing documents, though this is not always the case. An official transcript bears the official seal of the issuing school and if appropriate that a degree has been awarded. Photocopies, facsimiles, or transcripts marked "issued to student" are not official. Please check your application portal to see which documents are missing.

Your admission to the Graduate School can be revoked if, after receipt of these documents, it is determined that you do not meet the academic requirements for admission into the Graduate School.

Dear Sanjana Nitin,

Congratulations! You have met the requirements for admission to the Business Analytics master's program at The University of Texas at Dallas' Naveen Jindal School of Management for the Fall 2018 semester. We share your excitement as you begin this next stage in your educational career. The Jindal School of Management academic advisors will be here to assist you with any questions or concerns you may have regarding your academic progress throughout the course of your program.

Please note that as a graduate student, you carry certain responsibilities that may not have been present in your undergraduate experience.

- As part of your degree program prerequisites, you will need to complete a one credit hour Professional Development course. Details on the course can be viewed on the Jindal School of Management page.
- Additionally, our records indicate that you must meet the calculus prerequisite requirement by completing Quantitative Foundations of Business, within your first semester with a grade of B or better. If you are in doubt of your ability to successfully complete the requirement, you may wish to reconsider your decision to enroll in classes. Please feel free to visit with one of the graduate advisors for help with this decision.
- Plan time to visit the Advising Office to review the requirements of your degree plan and to remove your advising hold. Please try to plan several visits while you are a student.

Be aware of the information contained in the Graduate Catalog and on the Academic Calendar. Failure to read them does not exempt you from the rules and regulations therein pertaining to your academic experience.

- You will also receive information about the Jindal School of Management's Graduate Orientation program, please make it a priority to attend this important event.
- When you reach the final semester of degree plan requirements you must fill out a graduation application by the posted deadline of your graduating semester. Failure to apply for graduation by the applicable deadline will delay your graduation by a semester.

Our faculty and staff look forward to assisting you during your educational journey. We are confident that your experience at UT Dallas will include a welcoming environment, an intellectual challenge and a first-rate faculty in your field of study.

Congratulations, Dhruva, on being offered admission to the graduate program in computer science at NC State University.

When submitting your application, you selected "Computer Science - MS," our thesis master's as your degree objective. But you may have noticed on the admission letter that the major degree to which you were admitted is "Computer Science - MR," and are wondering about the change. The reason is simple.

Our experience has shown that the majority of computer science master's degrees awarded at NC State are for the non-thesis option, which is the master of computer science (MCS) program, designated on the admission letter by the abbreviation "MR." Accordingly, we make this the default for the initial enrollment of masters students.

However, our intent is not to discourage students who prefer to do a thesis for their master's degree. If you are one of those students, you may change to the thesis option after you've completed one semester at NC State. The change is simple and the request takes only a few minutes to complete. Your adviser will gladly discuss the pros and cons with you before you decide.

Again, congratulations on your admission, and we hope you'll decide to join us for the 2018 Fall Term.

Dear Miss Coelho,

On behalf of the Graduate Program Committee of the School of Computing Science, I am pleased to inform you that you have been admitted to the Professional Master of Science in Computer Science (Big Data) starting in Fall 2018.

The tuition fees for this program are currently $7,337.00 for domestic students and $9,555.00 for international students per semester (please note that tuition may increase prior to Fall 2018). The program includes mandatory co-op which is covered by your semesterly tuition fees. In addition to tuition, students should expect to pay other fees set out by the university, such as activity fees, health insurance, graduation fees, etc. As the School does not provide funding for this program, it is expected that students can provide for their living and education expenses.

SFU has 3 semesters per year, and the expected completion time for the Professional Master's Program in Big Data is 4 or 5 continuous semesters. You will complete a minimum of 30 units of graduate work that will include a certain number of courses to be taken in a specific sequence. Please note that course offerings and program structure may change depending on instructor availability and other factors.

Fall 2018: completion of 2 or 3 graduate courses

Spring 2019: completion of 2 or 3 graduate courses

Summer 2019: paid co-op semester

Fall 2019: continuation of co-op (if co-op placement is 8 months) OR 1 or more graduate course(s) to complete the program

Spring 2020: if 8-month co-op was secured, you now take 1 or more graduate course(s) to complete the program

If you are an international student, you are required to obtain a study permit from Immigration Canada before you can begin your program. You will need to provide immigration officials with an official letter of admission and a letter of acceptance which are both issued by the Dean of Graduate Studies offices at SFU. Please contact the nearest Canadian Embassy or High Commission for information on obtaining a study permit.

Dear Subodh Ashok Bhamare,

It is my pleasure to offer you admission to our Master of Science in Industrial Engineering Program, with a concentration in Production Systems, commencing with the Fall 2018-2019 academic year. Our decision reflects our hope that you will be able to build on your achievements by taking advantage of the many opportunities offered by our program.

In your application, you asked to be considered for financial aid. Because of the large number of highly qualified applicants this year, we are unable to offer you financial support at this time. If you decide to accept our offer of admission, you must be prepared to fund your studies without department assistance. It is my hope that you will be able to make such arrangements.

We are recommending your acceptance to the Master of Science degree program starting in Fall 2018 pending final review by the Office of International Admissions of your application and determination of your eligibility to receive the official documents necessary for a US student visa (should it be required).

In addition, please note your admission is provisional pending receipt of official transcripts, proof of completion of an earned baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited college or university by the date of intended enrollment and any other required documents. You will receive further instructions from the UB Office of International Admissions with your I-20/International Welcome Packet regarding which documents to submit- how and when to submit them.

If you decide to accept our offer of admission, please complete the statement of intent by clicking the link : https://ub-gradeng.formstack.com/forms/ise_intent_to_enroll_form_fall2018.

Thank you for giving us the opportunity to review your application. We are looking forward to having you join our graduate program.

Sincerely,
